PROFILE

I'm currently studing my B.Tech in Computer Science as major. I love to be a part of any real world projects. A new coding challenge always get me and makes to learn new things. I love to develope new web applications using "React" and the same as to code in java. I dont consider myself a good coder but as a beginner in doing things and I will give my 100%. Whenever I try to create a new website or code , i always learn one or more new things.
